they closed for the holidays.

of the residents in that section.

The Dramatic Club held another whist party at the Town hall Saturday evening.

George B. Richards, Jr., of Pittsburgh, formerly residing in Columbia, was in town Sunday last.

Christmas services were held at the church Sunday, the pastor preaching from the text, "The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." Special music was rendered by the choir and a solo by Buck, entitled in Old Judea, was finely given by Miss Edith Lyman, who later, in the Sunday school session, sang the beautiful Christmas hymn, Silent Night. Recitations by the children were also given. The church was attractively decorated.

Mr. Alice Hunt is the organist.
Miss Ransom, who is considering the appointment as teacher at the Pine street school, was in town Friday, and visited the school.

ter, and Ernest Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winifred E. Slater of Hop River,

Congregational church by the pastor, Rev. T. Newton Owen. The bride entered the church, walking with her father, and was escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. Slater. The wedding ceremony was a simple one, and was attended by a number of friends. The double ring ceremony was used.

Mr. Slater and his bride left the church for their home at 4 p. m. The church was decorated with flowers and a large Christmas tree was in the sanctuary.

George H. Champlin, accompanied by friends, was a Hartford visitor on Friday and Saturday.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON
Danielson was without a drop of water during the night Wednesday after the noon hour. Exposed to grave danger from fire and with hundreds of households unable to proceed with the preparations for the holiday dinner.

The process of connecting up a little dwelling at Elmville was the cause of the trouble that inconvenienced thousands of people, because the main supply pipes from the reservoir near East Killingly come down through Elmville and Danielson's whole water supply was cut off while the connection was being made. Early Wednesday evening the water company official claimed the water had been turned on again at 2 p. m. but at 3 o'clock the people in the greater part of the borough were still waiting for even enough water with which to brush their teeth.

Particular indignation as aroused by the fact that the water company gave no warning whatever of the intention to cut off the borough supply on the eve of a holiday.

The failure of the water supply was responsible, late in the afternoon, for the cutting off the supply of gas and Manager J. Howard Burdick of the lighting company Wednesday evening disclaimed all responsibility for the exasperating conditions, stating that his company had received no warning whatsoever that the water supply was to be shut off.

Oliver Marchessault, was knocked down and injured, in Main street, last Wednesday afternoon, when he stepped in front of a car owned by County Commissioner John A. Dady of Putnam.

The car was being driven by Mr.
Dady's chauffeur, Royal Beauvois.

Mr. Marchessault suffered a long scalp wound and his side was badly bruised. Dr. George Burroughs, who was called, said the man was not seriously injured, but ordered him removed to the Day-Kimball hospital at Putnam, that he may receive proper care.

The injured man is an employee at the Connecticut mills is advanced in years and has been boarding in a private home here.

Commissioner Dady was much distressed by the accident and was very solicitous for the injured man's well-fare.

Harold Gordon, of Jacksonville, telegraphed Christmas greetings through the Bulletin Wednesday to all of his friends here and his wishes that all may have a happy New Year.

At St. James' church today (Thursday) there will be special services in observance of the feast of the Nativity, the first of the masses at 8:30 a. m.

Business men were practically a unit Wednesday afternoon in declaring that Danielson has had the greatest Christmas shopping season ever.
Prosperity has been reflected in every line of trade by the unusually large volume of buying—and high prices seem not to have made the slightest difference. One firm's sales for a single day were within a small amount of what a full year's sales were in the same line of business.
The record of sales for a whole week before Christmas.

Talk about a dry Christmas! Danielson feels that it can lay claim this morning to having been at least on the eve of the great holiday the driest in the United States. Why? Because even the water supply failed Wednesday just before the noon hour and housewives, busy with their Christmas dinner preparations, were left with faucets that would not turn.
The water supply failed Wednesday just before the noon hour and housewives, busy with their Christ-

As has been the custom for years, Putnam lodge of Elks has been generous again this Christmas season in giving to the needy of the city. This Christmas giving on the part of the lodge is always quietly carried out, the members being very reticent about what is being done in their name.
There is a list of names of the needy of the city and it is very much appreciated in the homes that are benefited.

State Attorney Charles E. Sears of this city is president of the Connecticut State Bar association, which is to hold its annual meeting in Hartford Jan. 19.

Being automobile markers for 1920 are being distributed here, attention is called to the fact that these markers are being displayed on machines until Jan. 1, and the present markers must be continued in use until that time.
Exponents of the card game continue to risk their favorite pastime, though they are more secretive about it than before warnings were issued here that these caught playing the game would be liable to arrest and prosecution. It appears that some young men have not realized that card is a gambling game, therefore continue to play it.

On a trip from this city to Providence via Chepachet a local man tells of counting 40 motor trucks. This was an average of a truck for about every half mile, and indicates the surprising distribution of Christmas gifts.

The Newman Musical Comedy company is playing Christmas exercises at the Orpheum theatre this afternoon and evening—and they have a Christmas play that will be very pleasing to all—adv.

News of the cost of their cost has greatly advanced, some very beautiful calendars are being distributed to their trade by Danielson business men and manufacturing concerns.

Members here of Columbian Commandery, Knights Templar, with headquarters at Norwich, will gather at noon today at the room of Monday lodge to offer the customary toast.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kennedy are entertaining Miss Nellie Sullivan of Hartford today.

Christmas tree exercises are to be held this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock at the Congregational church.
A feature of the exercises will be a play presented by members of the primary and junior departments of the Sunday school.

Considerable money was contributed here to the work that the Salvation army is carrying on at Christmas time in this part of Windham county.
There are to be Christmas exercises at the Pentecostal church on Academy street this evening at six o'clock.

The Christmas morning service at St. Alban's church is to be at 10 o'clock.

Game Warden Harry Battey has given notice that hunting of the declared white rabbits is forbidden.
There is no open season on this variety of hare, as it is described by the federal government.

Carol singers of the Danielson Girls club went about the borough bringing joyous tidings of Christmas Wednesday evening.

This evening at 7 o'clock there is to be a Christmas concert at the Baptist church and another feature of the holiday observance at this church will be the big Christmas tree gathering for young and old.
